or Bill Is cribed as 'a Victory'

B. L. LIVINGSTONE

INGTON (AP)—A bitter, table battle on the floor of the House today resulted in the adoption of a labor-control bill.

House Labor Committee, at night session, virtually completed a bill denouncing (Republican) spokesmen as "the greatest victory. Faction-mongers disagreed on various provisions and on the bill's effectiveness.

Mother Tells of Being Held by Kidnapers

HAMBURG, Ark. (AP)—"When he said, 'I would be me or my little girl, I knew I'd have to go with him, no matter what he did to me,'" said Mrs. Ida Riley Jr.

The 34-year-old mother of three was remarkably calm after 3 1/2 hours in the hands of a shotgun-wielding kidnaper.

Mrs. Riley was released unharmed shortly before a man identified as the kidnaper was arrested when a Hamburg man blocked his escape with an automobile.

Prosecutor A. James Linder said he would file kidnapping and robbery charges against the man, Kenneth Wayne Ellis, about 31, of Spring Hill, La.

The kidnapping spurred a widespread search by law officers and a posse of civilians which included the woman's husband.

After the arrest, officers had to hustle Ellis through a crowd of about 150 irate townspeople who clustered around the car taking him to jail.

"I was lucky to get to jail," said Police Chief Bill Hayden. "The people were pretty wrought up. Some of them tried to take him out of the car."

Probably the calmest person in Hamburg, a town of 3,000, was Mrs. Riley.

"I guess we can do a lot of things when we have to," she said. "I was so paralyzed to be scared."

She told the story of the kidnapping in unswerving tones, smiling self-consciously at times.

"He just burst into the house waving that shotgun and told me and my daughters not to say anything. Then he told me to give him my money."

She estimated the amount at about $10. "It was in a jar and I don't know exactly how much it was," she said.

Then he said either me or Martha Jo would have to go with him."

Mrs. Riley said Ellis told her he was taking her so she wouldn't tell police.

Loss in Steel Production 100 Millions

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Steel production loss mounted toward 100 million dollars today in the third day of the nationwide steel strike.

No end to the crippling shutdown is in sight.

Many more millions in wages have been lost by 300,000 striking United Steelworkers, quietly manning picket lines at darkened mills.

Losses on both sides will grow steadily. The negotiations front is static.

There's little optimism on the part of strikers, the steel industry or the government that the contract stalemate can be resolved quickly. Neither the industry nor the union has given any sign of retreating from its stand.

Federal mediation efforts in the dispute will be renewed in New York Monday.

David J. McDonald, president of the Steelworkers, told pickets at the Bethlehem Steel Corp. plant in Bethlehem, Pa.: "We meet with the government on Monday, but I don't know whether it will do any good. Up to this point, we have been meeting nothing but messenger boys."

The strike at Tuesday midnight shut off nearly 50 per cent of the country's steelmaking capacity, representing about 300,000 tons of input steel daily.

Weekly production loss to the industry is estimated at 300 million dollars. The loss to strikers in wages is calculated at 70 million dollars a week.

In addition, allied industries such as coal and transportation have felt the strike keenly. About 25,000 workers have been idled due to business cutbacks.

Negotiations floundered on the union demand for increased wages and improved fringe benefits, the industry's steadfast refusal to make any concessions that would raise labor costs.

Steelworkers had been averaging $3.10 an hour before the strike.

Compulsory Health Care Bill Denounced

WASHINGTON, (Special) — Dr. R. B. Robins of Camden, Ark., representing the American Academy of General Practitioners, Thursday told the House Ways and Means Committee that national compulsory health insurance would undermine and gravely damage the quality of health care in this nation.

Dr. Robins, who helped found the American Academy of General Practitioners, said the bill would force doctors to accept patients they did not want, and would force them to accept patients they could not care for.

Castro Quits as Cuban Premier; Aims to Rally His Popular Strength

HAVANA (AP)— Fidel Castro is quitting as prime minister, apparently to rally public support for his troubled regime. Cuban workers at once began strikes and parades to show they are behind the bearded revolutionary.

Castro arrived at the presidential palace at midday, apparently to present his resignation to President Manuel Urrutia. Radio stations said Castro will speak to the people tonight to explain his decision.

Groups of workers marched to the plaza of the Presidential Palace, shouting support for Castro and his revolution.

It was generally agreed in Havana that Castro still is the No. 1 man in Cuba and that his absence from office will be brief.

Reports circulated in business circles that differences had arisen between Castro and President Urrutia, installed by Castro.

Many were saying Urrutia will step out of the presidency and that Castro himself would take over the job. This was denied, however, in official circles.

Castro's decision to resign was announced today in Revolution, newspaper of his 26th of July Movement and confirmed by Raul Castro, his brother and heir-apparent.

Associates said Castro had been upset by recent developments, including the resignation and flight of his air force commander, Maj. Pedro Luis Diaz Lanz. Later Diaz told U.S. sources that Castro and others high in his government are Communists — a charge the Castro forces vigorously deny.

Castro also has been disturbed about evidence of opposition to him within Cuba. But close associates say these activities have been annoying rather than serious.

Castro took over as prime minister Feb. 17.

The movement's newspaper, Revolution, said: "This newspaper has learned that the Prime Minister has in the last few hours taken the decision to resign his post that he accepted because of national necessity some months ago."

"It is known also that without doubt that public opinion will be greatly moved by this action which Fidel Castro will explain in a news conference later today..."

Tea Party Air May Help Big 4 Find Peace

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
GENEVA (AP)—The Big Four foreign ministers opened a round of secret "four party" negotiation today on terms of a truce in the Berlin crisis. The West is seeking an immediate pledge of Soviet respect for the Western position in Berlin.

U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd of Britain and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko met with French Foreign Minister Couve de Murville for lunch at the latter's villa.

Officially it was a social gathering. In fact it was the opening of a new round of secret diplomacy.

Thursday's meeting produced some evidence that the West may find it possible in the end to get an agreement to shelve the Soviet threat to Berlin for several years.

The Western ministers believe that progress toward agreement can be achieved only in secret sessions, away from the propaganda spotlight.

On Monday Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko said he would not agree to secret meetings unless the delegations from

The governors party, including his Louisiana state police escort, and several friends, had gone to Juarez just before midnight, some hours after his arrival in El Paso from Big Spring, Tex.

Execution Stay for Leggett Again Denied

WASHINGTON (AP)—Four Supreme Court justices acting separately yesterday denied a stay of execution for the convicted Arkansas slayer.

Justice William O. Douglas, Justice Hugo Black, Justice Charles E. Whittaker and Justice John F. Roberts all voted to deny the stay.

Justice Earl Warren, Justice Felix Frankfurter, Justice Tom C. Clark and Justice William J. Brennan all voted to grant the stay.

The stay would have delayed the execution of Leggett until after the Supreme Court's next session, which begins in October.

Leggett was sentenced to death in 1956 for the slaying of a woman in Arkansas.

Goldfine Asks Mercy of Court

WASHINGTON (AP) — Boston industrialist Bernard Goldfine Thursday withdrew his plea of innocent to a contempt of Congress indictment and threw himself upon the mercy of the court.

Instead of the plea of innocent, legal language the plea is now contumacious.

U.S. Dist. Judge James W. Morris accepted the plea.

Morris could impose a sentence as high as a year in jail plus a $1,000 fine, but gave every indication that he would be more lenient.

Goldfine was indicted for refusing to answer questions before the House subcommittee on Legislative Oversight last summer concerning the financial affairs of the Boston Port Development Co., of which he is the majority stockholder.

Mrs. Sewell Munn.

Bob Rouse spent the weekend in Hot Springs with Mrs. Marion Rouse and Miss Karen Ann Rouse who are vacationing at the Majestic Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Jones spent the weekend in Oklahoma City, Okla., with their daughter, Mrs. Harold Pollock and family. Their grandsons, Carey and Stephen, accompanied them home.

Mrs. Billy Joe Gist and daughters have returned to their home in St. Petersburg, Florida after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hambright.

Mrs. Karl King Jr. has returned from Little Rock where she has been with her mother, Mrs. Ira Ward, who was injured in a car accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Fado Craven Jr., Ben, Tommy and Chad have returned to Fort Smith after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bemis.

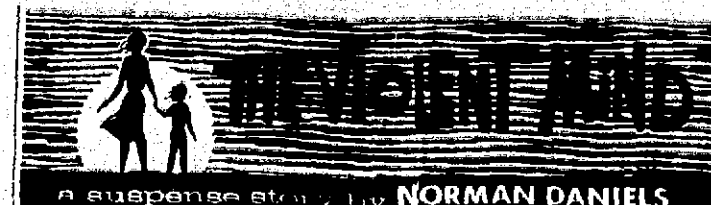

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Stegar Jr., and children have returned to Excelsior Springs, Mo., after a visit with Mrs. J. C. Stegar.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Stark, Jonathan and Kimberly have returned to Little Rock after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Karl King Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Stark.

Rev. James A. Mitchell of Hot Springs was the guest speaker at the First Presbyterian Church Sunday morning. He was accompanied by Mrs. Mitchell and their son.

Paul Hambright of Longview, Texas was the weekend guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hambright.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Gee, Bobby and Mary Ethel of Little Rock were Sunday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Imen Gee.

THE STORY: Diane found a lost five-year-old girl. The child disappeared or was stolen before Diane could locate the little girl's parents. Knowing that Diane had just recovered from a mental illness, people are inclined to disbelieve her assertion that there was a child. But Diane's husband Casey believes her. Then, after Casey had gone back to Boston, the child reappears. Diane believes the child is ill, perhaps under sedatives and she takes the child to town. Her car is halted by a broken tree limb and when Diane tries to move it, the car starts to move.

Diane screamed again. Then she clambered through the branches of the huge bough she had moved from the road. She ran after the car.

The station wagon was running away, rolling backward, going faster and faster. It left the lane and below it, was just steep hillside of rocks and shrubs, none large enough to stop the vehicle.

Diane kept running, the momentum of her downhill speed threatening to get out of control. She skidded off a rounded stone and went headlong into the side of the lane where bushes tore at her flesh and clothing. She was up again, as quickly as she could get her legs under her, but it was too late. Much too late now.

It had been hopeless from the first. She was only in time to see the headlights of the station wagon waver as the car tipped, settled back on four tires, tipped again and started rolling over and over.

She could hear the crashing of metal and wood and, inside that car, a little girl had only the protection of a thin blanket to save her from being cut or killed.

Diane ran again, this time wisely enough not to let her descent get out of hand. She stumbled off the lane, ran and slid down the dirt below grass of the steep hillside. Below her, she could see the wheels of the station wagon still turning.

It rested on its side. The glass was smashed, the hood caved in, splintered wood from the body stuck out crazily. It seemed impossible that anyone inside the machine could remain alive.

Diane seized the wagon door, which had been flung open and held.

The hearings which resulted in Goldfine's indictment brought disclosures of his gifts and favors to politicians, including Sherman Adams, then President Eisenhower's top aide. Adams resigned after the hearings.

no fault of his own. "When the family doctor finds one of his patients who is really sick and needs to go to the hospital, he has to refer the patient to a specialist—called a consultant, a consultant whom the family doctor cannot even help choose.

"The relationship between the family doctor and his patient ceases at that point. Why? Because the family doctor cannot treat his own patient in the hospital.

"A stranger takes over, a consultant whom the patient probably has never seen before, and the connection of the family doctor with the case ceases until the patient returns home.

"As hard as this is for me to believe, I am told that it may be weeks before the family doctor even receives a report on the patient's condition.

"I was told of some instances in which the patients had died and been buried before the family doctor even heard about it.

"In my opinion, the people of this country would not take kindly to the long queue to their doctor's office; the three year wait for admission to a hospital; the assembly-line approach to treatment; the red-tape, and bureaucracy that are part and parcel of the British experiment.

"The legislation now before this committee is compulsory health insurance on a limited scale. And if it were made law, compulsory national health insurance—for every man, woman and child in this country—could soon come down the pike.

"Should this happen, the high standard of health care that Americans expect, want and deserve would begin to sag at the seams."

East and West Germany were present.

Gromyko obviously was making a grandstand bid for recognition of the Communist East German regime. When the three Western ministers rejected his maneuver, he agreed to resumption of the secret talks behind the social facade.

Gromyko indicated in a speech to the conference that he may be willing to meet some Western criticisms by amending his proposal for an 18-month Berlin truce.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd found that on several points the Soviet Union and the Western powers seemed to be approaching agreement.

Negro Threat Draws Reply From Georgia

ATLANTA Ga. (AP) — A Negro spokesman's statement that new segregation suits are planned in Georgia brought a declaration from Gov. Ernest Vandiver today that "anyone caught stirring up" lawsuits would be prosecuted.

Vandiver told his news conference he planned to re-create the Barter Committee in the Legislature next year in a move aimed at persons who excite or encourage lawsuits or quarrels.

Asked if this was aimed at the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, Vandiver said: "If the shoe fits we'll let them wear it."

He made the statements in commenting on reports that Thurgood Marshall, chief counsel for the NAACP, said that group is preparing to file new segregation suits.

The Marshall remarks were made in New York in a telephone interview with the Atlanta Constitution.

Hero of Cancer Research Just Ghost of Man

CHICAGO (AP)—He lies there, a wreck of a man after 64 years of pain and 91 operations, one of the first victims of radiation.

He speaks from only half a mouth, and his words were sometimes bitter. The operations also have claimed his left hand, most of his nose, his upper lips and parts of his cheek and jaw.

He asks, "Why should I, an innocent individual, have to suffer like this? For 34 years I have known pain."

The white-haired man is Dr. Emil H. Grubbe, 94, credited by medical science with being the first to apply radiation in an attempt to cure cancer.

Friday, he is scheduled to undergo his 92nd operation for radiation burns and cancer resulting from some of his experiments. Doctors say they probably will have to remove two fingers from his right hand.

Dr. Grubbe gave a rare news conference Wednesday in Swedish Covenant Hospital.

"I was the first one burned by radiation," he said. He told of how in 1895, as a physicist, he worked on the manufacture of platinum vacuum tubes called Crookes tubes, used to rarify gases.

Many times he touched the tubes or brought them near his face, not knowing of the danger. An irritation appeared on his hand, but he didn't know what it was.

Then on Nov. 8, 1895 the discovery of X-rays was announced by Wilhelm Roentgen.

"I knew then I had been burned by X-rays," Dr. Grubbe said.

Welfare Employee Is Fired

By ED MARTIN

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus today said that Mrs. Alice Lochbaum, director of nursing home care for the state Welfare Department, had been dismissed after an investigation into alleged payoff of $300 from a nursing home operator.

Faubus said also that an investigation had showed "shocking conditions" at Trinity Nursing Home at Little Rock, where some welfare patients had been housed.

Mrs. Lochbaum refused immediate comment. So did Mrs. Gladys Brandon, operator of Trinity, whom Faubus said had been dismissed as a part-time attorney for the Welfare Department.

Faubus said the first nursing home is outside Pulaski County. He refused to identify it or to say why identity was withheld while Trinity was named.

He said the alleged payoff was to obtain special considerations.

He quoted Mrs. Lochbaum as saying repayment of a loan was involved.

In a prepared statement, the governor said the Trinity probe indicated "starvation, serving of spoiled and improper food, unsanitary conditions, neglect of the ill, beatings and improper use of drugs that may have resulted in the death of patients."

He said the alleged payoff was revealed by a State Police investigation. He referred to the inquiry involving Trinity as another investigation but did not say specifically that it was carried out by State Police.

Faubus said he had notified Welfare Commissioner Carl Adams of the results of the investigations.

Trinity is not licensed by the State Health Department, Faubus said. All welfare patients will be removed from it immediately to approved nursing homes, the governor added.

DOROTHY DIX

Television Rates Low as Cause of Adultery

Dear Dorothy Dix: I am considered most fortunate by my friends because my husband is a good provider, we are moderately well off and have three fine children. The truth is, however, that I'm desperately unhappy. My husband is content to watch TV every night, and because I like every night, and because I like to go out with his friends. Now I find my recreations have strayed to another man. I think I should leave my husband while I'm young enough to begin a new life. My mother says I would be making a terrible mistake. What road should I take? — Una

Dear Una: A lot of criticism and blame have been placed at TV's screen, much of it justified, but TV can't be responsible for adultery. If you must get out at night, find something safe, simple and sensible to do. You quite deliberately set out to find trouble, which is never hard to do. You've got it, now get rid of it. Your young man isn't seriously interested in you; he just wants the excitement of a flirtation with a married woman. Once you set out for a "new life" you will have made an irrevocable step that will lead to nothing but disaster. Believe me, your present life may be a bit humdrum but its pleasant security won't be found anywhere else. Stick with it. Even westerns, private eyes and summer substitutions can be fun if you give them a chance.

Dear Dorothy Dix: My husband isn't the least bit goodlooking, yet he can't pass a mirror or store window without looking to admire himself. He eagerly latches onto any compliment paid him by a woman and repeats it at intervals. Handsome men never appealed to me; there are other things I consider more important such as consideration, generosity, dependability and good humor. What do you think of my husband's mania? — Maggie

Dear Maggie: Your husband seems to be trying to convince himself that he is, at least, passably good looking. Why not try complimenting him yourself sometime? Your kind words are the ones he wants and he's doing his damndest to give enough hints to that effect. Catch on, girl.

Dear Dorothy Dix: Although Jerry and I have been going steady for six months, I've never met his mother. Every time Jerry suggests that I go to her house, she has something else to do. Please give me some advice on how to meet her. — Ginger

Dear Ginger: You can't push the meeting. When Mom is ready to break the ice, she will let you know.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I failed two subjects in school this year and unless I make up the work during the summer I won't be admitted to junior year in September. My mother says I can't go anywhere until I have passed these subjects. I have to sit home while my brother and sister go out. I don't think it's fair. — Connie

Dear Connie: Mom is being a bit too strict. You would probably make better progress if you got out once in a while. However, the work you accomplish during these two months may save a whole school year. Think ahead to the reward of entering school again with your own class and you won't find studying too hard.

May Repeal Egg-Grading State Law

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus said today he might call a special session of the Arkansas Legislature, but it would deal with an egg-grading law and not school integration.

Faubus said a 1950 legislative act designed to keep egg-producers from dumping low-grade eggs on the market apparently was hurting the farmers.

He said it had been reported to him that the law was penalizing farmers who tried to market their eggs. He did not go into details about the reports.

"I'm telling these who got the law passed to get together," he said. "If they can't correct the situation, I will call a special session of the Legislature and have it done."

A newsman then asked if it were possible an egg-grading law special session might do some work on integration. Faubus laughed and said, "It could always do a variety of things."

'If' Is Magic Word in the AL Flag Race

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

All you can say about the American League pennant race at the moment is IF.

IF the Chicago White Sox can do no worse than split the four-game series they open in New York tonight against the Yankees, they might be able to do something with their newly reacquired lead.

IF the Cleveland Indians can rebound quickly they might bounce right back into first place in a four-game series at Boston opening tonight.

IF the Yankees can sweep the White Sox, or at worse lose no more than one of the four, then it might be all over.

The White Sox slipped back into first place while splitting a double-header at Boston Thursday, losing 5-4 after pushing their winning streak to five games with a 4-3 decision in the opener. The Indians were jolted to second, a game behind after a month's stay on top, when they dropped a double-header to the Yankees, 7-3 in 10 innings and 4-0.

Kansas City defeated third-place Baltimore 4-3, and Washington's spurring Senators swept a three-game series from Detroit's sliding Tigers 5-2.

In the National League, first-place San Francisco beat Philadelphia 1-0 on Johnny Antonelli's three-hitter after the Phils had won the first game of the two-night double-header 6-4. Third-place Milwaukee lost its third in a row to the Chicago Cubs, 4-3. Cincinnati defeated the St. Louis Cardinals 7-5.

The White Sox beat Boston on Sherm Lollar's tie-breaking double in the seventh inning against loser Tom Brewer (7-0). Dick Donovan won it. He allowed only four hits, but needed Gerry Staley's hitless two-inning save for a 6-5 record.

Ted Williams' pinch single in the sixth gave the Red Sox a 4-4 tie in the second game, and Vic Wertz who drove in an early run with one of two doubles, then beat reliever Ray More (2-0) with a seventh-inning single. Mike Fornieles gained his first victory in relief. Bobby Shantz (4-3) pitched a five-hitter, walking two, striking out seven, for his fourth straight victory, first complete game and first shutout since 1957 in the nightcap for the Yankees. Enos Slaughter and Hank Bauer homered.

The fourth-place Yankees gained a 5-3 tie on Yogi Berra's 11th homer in the ninth inning of the opener, then put it away on Mickey Mantle's two-run, two-out home run off losing reliever Gary Bell. Tom Sturdivant's four innings of hitless relief saved it for the Yankees and Bud Daley (9-6), who gave

Crawford Leads Camden Golf Tourney

CAMDEN, Ark. (AP)—Richard Crawford of Jacksonville, National Collegiate champion, led a field of 180 into the Ouachita Valley Amateur Golf tournament today at the Camden Country Club.

The title is wide open since 1938 winner Miller Barber has turned professional.

Amateurs shot an 18-hole qualifying round today and paired with professionals in a 5600 pro-am event.

The tourney proper starts tomorrow with the low 32 qualifiers in the championship flight. The title field will be cut to 16 after Saturday's first 18 holes.

Twenty-seven holes of medal play will be shot tomorrow and 27 Sunday.

Maybe Now for Yanks, Says Stengel

NEW YORK (AP)—"Maybe we'll get going now," the old man said hopefully. "Maybe now I'll stop dreaming of that massacre in Boston."

Casey Stengel, manager of the World Champion Yankees, was talking Thursday while getting out of his soggy baseball uniform. "Well, they gave us the first game after we tried to give it to them," he said. "But there was nothing flakey about the second one. That little fella (Bobby Shantz) pitched a real fine game for us." It was a 5-hitter.

"This calls for some sort of celebration, I suppose," Stengel added. "I'm not accustomed to winning two in one day anymore."

Stengel had just seen his fourth-place Yankees sweep a double-header for the first time since May 30.

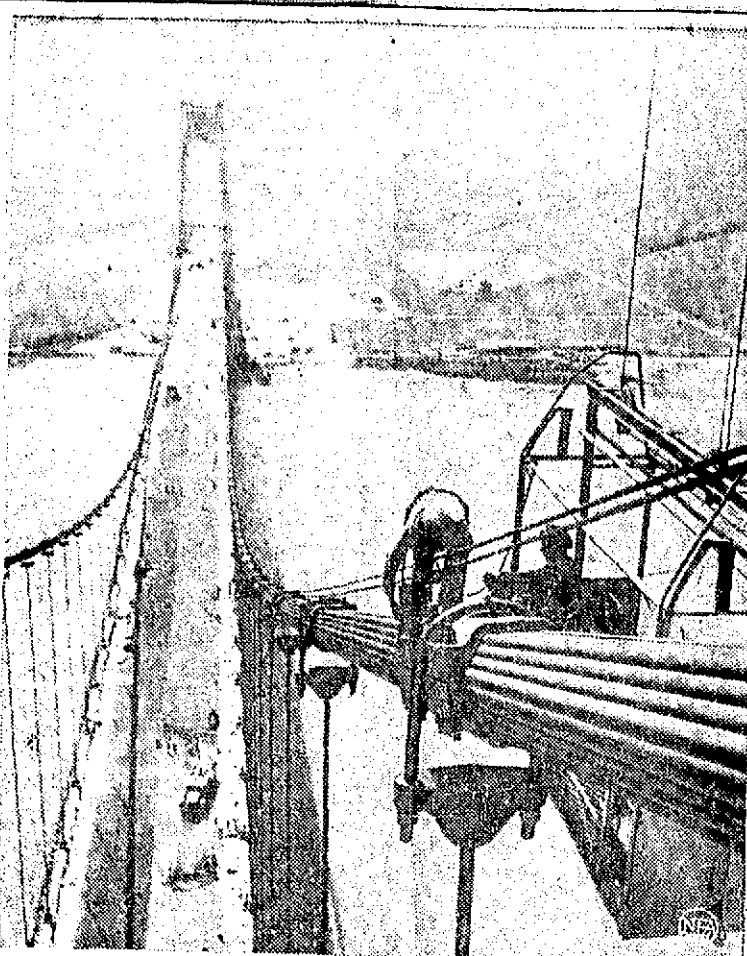

They defeated Cleveland 7-5 and 4-0 to drive the Indians out of first place. It was a sweep of the Cleveland series after the Yankees had lost five straight in Boston.

up the Oriole runs on homers by Walt Drope and Gus Triandos. Jerry Walker (7-4) lost it.

The Senators beat the Tigers' Ray Nariski (4-10) with two runs in the second on Faye Thronberry's home run and a sacrifice fly by winning pitcher Bill Fischer (8-3).

Los Angeles' Paulie Armistead, 1924, Los Angeles, out-pitched Mauro Vazquez, 1935, Mexico City, 10.

BRIDGING THE GAP—Suspended in a tiny gondola 400 feet in the air, workmen fasten cables of the new Tancarville Bridge in France. The huge bridge, 2,000 feet long, is the longest suspension bridge in Europe. It spans the estuary of the Seine River, 20 miles from Le Havre. The bridge is expected to handle up to 1,500 vehicles an hour.

Antonelli and Rhodes Repeat for the Giants

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

When the Giants last won the National League pennant, 1954, southpaw Johnny Antonelli led the league in winning percentage and earned run average. And a guy named Dusky Rhodes kept thrilling in the Giants' rotors by drilling clutch hits.

It was that way again Thursday night. Antonelli pitched a three-hitter and Rhodes came through with a run-scoring pinch single in the ninth for a 1-0 victory at Philadelphia. That re-lead over San Francisco's one-game lead over the Los Angeles after the two-night double-header 6-4.

It was Antonelli's 14th victory, once more tying him with Pittsburgh's relief ace Roy Face as the winningest pitcher in the majors. It also was Antonelli's third shutout of the year, all in his last four starts, and gave him the year lead in the National League at 2.49.

He fanned nine and walked but two Thursday night.

The split also pushed the Giants two games ahead of the Milwaukee Braves, who lost their third in a row to the Chicago Cubs 4-2. Cincinnati defeated St. Louis 7-5.

In the American League, the Chicago White Sox took first place by one game with a split at Boston, winning 4-3 and losing 5-4, as Cleveland slipped to second with a double-header loss at New York, 7-5 in 10 innings and 4-0. Kansas City defeated Baltimore 4-3 and Washington rapped Detroit 5-2.

Robbin Roberts (8-8) beat the Giants in the opener although giving up 10 hits. Wally Post had three hits, scored twice and drove in two runs for the Phils. He tripled home the winner in the seventh inning against losing reliever Jack Sanford (7-9), the ex-Phil starter.

Ernie Banks' solo 25th home run gave the Cubs a 3-1 lead in the fourth inning and beat Lew Burdette (12-9). Dave Hillman (5-7) went all the way, allowing nine hits, against the Braves.

Jerry Lynch drove in four runs for the Reds with a single and homer, then set up another run with a single. Johnny Temple's single broke a 5-5 tie in the sixth against losing reliever Marshall Bridges (3-1). Willard Schmidt (2-2) was the winner in relief.

Sources close to Castro said the revolutionary leader's action appeared to be a political maneuver aimed at provoking renewed support.

The Prime Minister had not appeared publicly for nearly two days. Associates said he had been at his country home outside Havana studying the situation.

There was no indication in Havana that Castro's action was the result of any antirevolutionary movement.

Political quarters expressed belief Castro's absence from the prime ministry would be brief.

President Manuel Urrutia could appoint a temporary successor. He might be either the minister of state and foreign affairs, Raul Roa, or the minister of national defense, Augusto Martinez Sanchez.

There was no particular excitement in Havana beyond a rush of office-goers for copies of the newspaper's did not have the announcement.

The development came not long after Foreign Minister Roa charged the former Batista officials in the United States who have "official connections" in Congress are planning an invasion of Cuba with 6,000 mercenaries based in the Dominican Republic.

'If' Is Magic Word in the AL Flag Race

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

All you can say about the American League pennant race at the moment is "if."

If the Chicago White Sox can do no worse than split the four-game series they open in New York tonight against the Yankees, they might be able to do something with their newly reacquired lead.

If the Cleveland Indians can rebound quickly they might bounce right back into first place in a four-game series at Boston opening tonight.

If the Yankees can sweep the White Sox, or at worse lose no more than one of the four, then it might be all over.

The White Sox slipped back into first place while splitting a double-header at Boston Thursday, losing 5-4 after pushing their winning streak to five games with a 4-3 decision in the opener. The Indians were jolted to second, a game behind after a month's stay on top, when they dropped a double-header to the Yankees, 7-3 in 10 innings and 4-0.

Kansas City defeated third-place Baltimore 4-3, and Washington's surging Senators swept a three-game series from Detroit's sliding Tigers 5-2.

In the National League, first-place San Francisco beat Philadelphia 1-0 on Johnny Antonelli's three-hitter after the Phils had won the first game of the two-night double-header 8-4. Third-place Milwaukee lost its third in a row to the Chicago Cubs, 4-2. Cincinnati defeated the St. Louis Cardinals 7-5.

The White Sox beat Boston on Sherm Lollar's tie-breaking double in the seventh inning against loser Tom Brewer (7-8). Dick Donovan won it. He allowed only four hits, but needed Gerry Staley's hitless two-inning save for a 6-5 record.

Ted Williams' pinch single in the sixth gave the Red Sox a 4-4 tie in the second game, and Vic Werz who drove in an early run with one of two doubles, then beat reliever Ray More (2-6) with a seventh-inning single. Mike Fornieles gained his first victory in relief.

Bobby Shantz (4-3) pitched a five-hitter, walking two, striking out seven, for his fourth straight victory, first complete game and first shutout since 1957 in the nightcap for the Yankees. Enos Slaughter and Hank Bauer homered.

The fourth-place Yanks gained a 3-5 tie on Yogi Berra's 11th homer in the ninth inning of the opener, then put it away on Mickey Mantle's two-run, two-out home run off losing reliever Gary Bell. Tom Sturdivant's four innings of hitless relief saved it for the A's and Bud Daley (9-8), who gave

CAMDEN, Ark. (AP)—Richard Crawford of Jacksonville, National Collegiate champion, led a field of 180 into the Ouachita Valley Amateur Golf tournament today at the Camden Country Club.

The title is wide open since 1958 winner Miller Barber has turned professional.

Amateurs shot an 18-hole qualifying round today and paired with professionals in a $600 pro-am event.

The tourney proper starts tomorrow with the low 32 qualifiers in the championship flight. The title field will be cut to 16 after Saturday's first 16 holes.

Twenty-seven holes of medal play will be shot tomorrow and 27 Sunday.

Maybe Now for Yanks, Says Stengel

NEW YORK (AP)—"Maybe we'll get going now," the old man said hopefully. "Maybe now I'll stop dreaming of that massacre in Boston."

Casey Stengel, manager of the World Champion Yankees, was talking Thursday while getting out of his soggy baseball uniform. "Well, they gave us the first game after we tried to give it to them," he said. "But there was nothing fluke about the second one. That little fella (Bobby Shantz) pitched a real fine game for us." It was a 5-hitter.

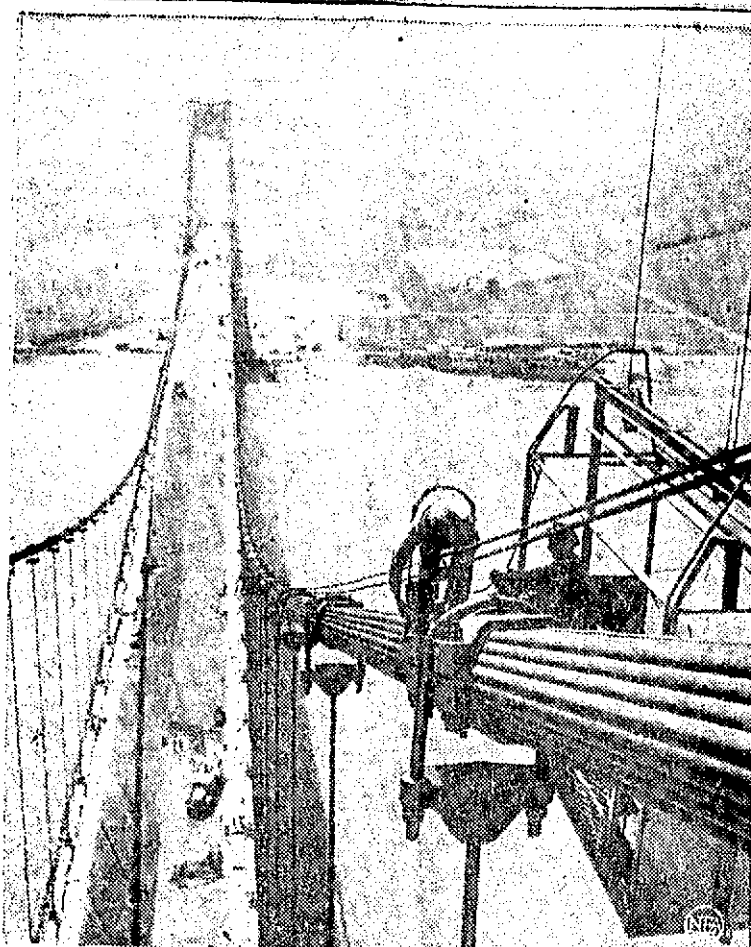

"This calls for some sort of celebration, I suppose," Stengel added. "I'm not accustomed to winning two in one day anymore."

Stengel had just seen his fourth-place Yankees sweep a double-header for the first time since May 30.

They defeated Cleveland 7-5 and 4-0 to drive the Indians out of first place. It was a sweep of the Cleveland series after the Yanks had lost five straight in Boston.

up the Orioles runs on homers by Walt Dropo and Gus Triandos. Jerry Walker (7-4) lost it.

The Senators beat the Tigers 1-0. Ray Nariski (4-0) with two runs in the second on Faye Thronberry's home run and a sacrifice fly by winning pitcher Bill Fischer (8-3).

BRIDGING THE GAP—Suspended in a tiny gondola 400 feet in the air, workmen fasten cables of the new Tancarville Bridge in France. The huge bridge, 2,000 feet long, is the longest suspension bridge in Europe. It spans the estuary of the Seine River, 20 miles from Le Havre. The bridge is expected to handle up to 1,500 vehicles an hour.

Robin Roberts (8-8) beat the Giants in the opener although giving up 10 hits. Wally Post had three hits, scored twice and drove in two runs for the Phils. He tripled home the winner in the seventh inning against losing reliever Jack Sanford (7-9), the ex-Phil starter.

Ernie Banks' solo 25th home run gave the Cubs a 3-1 lead in the fourth inning and beat Lew Burdette (12-9). Davey Hilman (5-7) went all the way, allowing nine hits, against the Braves.

Jerry Lynch drove in four runs for the Reds with a single and homer, then set up another run with a single. Johnny Temple's single broke a 5-5 tie in the sixth against losing reliever Marshall Bridges (3-1). Willard Schmidt (2-2) was the winner in relief.

Sources close to Castro said the revolutionary leader's action appeared to be a political maneuver aimed at provoking renewed support.

The Prime Minister had not appeared publicly for nearly two days. Associates said he had been at his country home outside Havana studying the situation.

There was no indication in Havana that Castro's action was the result of any antirevolutionary movement.

Political quarters expressed belief Castro's absence from the prime ministry would be brief.

President Manuel Urrutia could appoint a temporary successor. He might be either the minister of state and foreign affairs, Raul Roa, or the minister of national defense, Augusto Martinez Sanchez.

There was no particular excitement in Havana beyond a rush of office-goers for copies of the Castro party newspapers. Other newspapers did not have the announcement.

The development came not long after Foreign Minister Roa charged the former Batista officials in the United States who have "official connections" in Congress are planning an invasion of Cuba with 6,000 mercenaries based in the Dominican Republic.

Ed. F. Creagh, AP Feature Writer, Dies

WASHINGTON (AP)—Edward F. Creagh, 41, special assignment writer in the Associated Press Washington bureau, died today at Hadley Memorial Hospital.

He had been taken to the hospital last week in critical condition from a liver ailment.

Creagh had worked in the AP's Philadelphia, New York and London bureaus before coming to Washington after World War II.

Creagh was a versatile writer who had a notable light touch with feature stories. He also was well equipped to handle serious news stories with skill and perception.

One of his last major assignments was a series of articles on the career of John Foster Dulles. It was distributed to Associated Press members after the secretary of state's death on May 24.

Creagh was born in Nicholson, Pa. He is survived by his widow, the former Nelda Elizabeth Randall of Ocean, N.Y., and two children, David, 7, and Elizabeth, 4.

LAST CHANCE
BIRMINGHAM (AP)—The burglar was a little late—and he won't get another chance. Police said a burglar broke into a restaurant and got away with 30 cents—only hours after it went out of business.

A Plea To The Parents

Parents! You can bring your children out to the City Park every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday between 9 and 12 o'clock, and leave them with out being bored. We have responsible young ladies and men along with my self to supervise worthy activities with worth-while objectives in mind.

We intend to do all we can, so as to help them adjust to larger groups, develop the social sensitive child, and many others along this line.

Parents I believe we can be an unbeatable pair when working together for the youth of the community, proud of their ability to adjust to their environment, regardless to the condition.

Roscoe Smith - Supervisor of recreation at City Park.
